Overview

Solaris - 12079 Harris Road, Pitt Meadows, BC V3Y 0C7, Strata Plan No BCS3929, 10 levels, 144 units, built 2010. With an ideal location at the highest point in Pitt Meadows town center with panoramic views in every direction, Solaris - three 10-storey condo towers sprout in the Meadows Gate Village community of Pitt Meadows, at 12059, 12069 & 12079 Harris Road (the corner of Harris Road and Ford Street).

Developed by Vancouver-based RG Properties, three concrete towers and a four-storey wood-frame building incorporate 270 one-, two-, and three-bedroom residential homes ranging from 567 to 1300 sq.ft., 20,000 square feet of commercial space, as well as the fully developed recreational properties including a recreation centre, library, elementary school and civic hall. The beautiful central courtyard creates a special outdoor oasis where owners can pause to chat with neighbours or simply enjoy a few moments of relaxation amid the lush greenery and gardens.

Solaris is designed using LEED green building principles, and includes quality laminate wood flooring, cozy fireplaces, stainless steel Whirlpool appliances, granite countertops, classic tile backsplashes, and marble bathrooms. Large decks invite outdoor entertaining, and many homes offer stunning views of Golden Ears Provincial Park, Mount Baker, Fraser River, and rolling farmlands. Plus each home come with one parking space.

Solaris is adjacent to Hoffmann Park, across from the West Coast Express train Station, blocks away from Shoppers Drugmart, IGA, Walking Trails, Harris Landing & Shoreline Park, Pitt Meadows Elementary & Secondary, and easy commute along the Pitt River or Golden Ears Bridge as well as the West Coast Express train.
