Overview

Chancellor - 4880 Bennett Street, Burnaby, BC V5H 4P6, Canada. Strata Plan BCP47866, 37 levels, 245 units, estimated completion in 2014 - located at the crossroads of Nelson Ave and

Bennett Street in the heart of the Metrotown Burnaby. An impressive and iconic architectural statement and stunning addition to Burnaby's skyline. Its 37 contemporary floors will feature a large community courtyard, full gym, clubhouse lounge, secure underground parking, and 245 elegantly appointed homes soaring above the skyline. Evoking a sophisticated New York-style character through its sleek architecture and meticulous use of glass, granite and aluminum, this highrise is an impressive statement of prestige and style. Developer and Architecture by Polygon Development and Buttjes Architecture.

Inside, its spacious two bedroom homes feature open-plan interiors and the latest in high-quality finishes, including gourmet kitchens with caesarstone counters, wood cabinetry with built-in pantries and high end stainless steel appliances. Expansive floor-to-ceiling windows capture stunning panoramic views of the city, Deer Lake and the North Shore Mountains.

Chancellor is located next door to Bonsor Park and Recreational Centre on Bennett Street and just across from Metropolis at Metrotown shopping centre which is the provinces largest entertainment complex. Metrotown Skytrain station, the Crystal Mall, Station Square, and Central Park are also just steps away. Best of all, Chancellor Tower is close to great schools for all ages, BCIT and SFU for post secondary education options.
