In 1907, the government of British Columbia passed an Endowment Land Act, which gave the Lieutenant Governor the power to set aside land that could be sold to fund a provincial university. In 1910, a site commission recommended that UBC be built at the tip of Point Grey, and years later, in 1920, roughly 3,000 acres of land on the Point Grey peninsula was set aside to turn the dream of a provincial university into a reality with the creation of The University of British Colum...
