The New Hub

At the Edge, you'll find countless opportunities for recreation and outdoor adventure – everything from community centres to sports arenas to rivers and rugged mountain trails. Here too is a friendly urban neighbourhood with every modern service and amenity that residents need for their busy lives.

Maple Ridge is fast emerging as the new hub of Metro Vancouver. With the new Golden Ears and Pitt River bridges providing easy access, downtown Vancouver is a quick commute away. Or you can hop on the West Coast Express and catch up on your email or read the latest novel while you're whisked into town. You'll also enjoy speedy access to the south side of the Fraser Valley, US border, and BC interior. Living at the Edge gets you everywhere quickly and conveniently. Nowhere else in the lower mainland is so well-situated to be the gateway to metropolitan Vancouver and beyond. An address with a view to the future.

Built Right From the Ground Up

MacLean Homes is an established development and construction company with a solid reputation for building multi-family, high-rise and commercial developments as well as senior residences throughout Western Canada.
