The Crown Jewel of Coquitlam

The tallest residential tower in Coquitlam was created as both a landmark and an urban refuge – an Oasis in every sense of the word. Towering 42 floors into the sky, Oasis is an architectural gem within Coquitlam's vibrant downtown core that offers everything you need to live life to the fullest.

The desire to weave Oasis into the fabric of the community and the natural environment extends upwards into each residence. Generous outdoor living areas embrace British Columbia's love affair with the outdoors. Floor-to-ceiling windows provide views of the lower mainland and a unique perspective on Club Oasis – the building's expansive amenity area, immaculately landscaped gardens and outdoor pool.
