Overview

Bordering Burnaby's Central Park and just steps away from the best amenities the vibrant Metrotown neighbourhood has to offer, Aldynne on the Park by Polygon offers a setting of unmistakable grandeur and tranquility in the heart of the city.

Designed by acclaimed architect Nigel Baldwin and DYS Architecture, Aldynne on the Park is a testament to prestige and modern elegance, evoking a sophisticated character through its meticulous use of harmonious colours and natural elements. Inside, the air-conditioned residences are generously scaled, beautifully appointed and built to Polygon's tradition of rigorous standards, combining inviting comfort with spectacular floor-to-ceiling views of green spaces and cityscape.

Making this impressive tower even more celebrated is a 222 acre front yard that is Central Park. Inhale a breath of fresh air, behold the awesome views; this century-old park is famous for its urban forest of immense fir, cedar, maple and hemlock trees, offering wonderful places of serenity for contemplation, echoing the city of a quieter time. Just a stone's throw away from the dense forest canopies are numerous walking trails, calm reflective ponds, sunny picnic grounds, beautiful perennial gardens and recreational facilities for swimming, tennis, pitch-and-putt and more. Enjoy the privileges of parkside living, there is always a plethora of activities that awaits your whole family.

Conveniently neighboring Metropolis at Metrotown, residents of Aldynne on the Park enjoy first class access to British Columbia's largest shopping and entertainment complex, featuring over 450 brand name retailers along with exotic cuisines from around the world. Downtown Vancouver is just 15 minutes away on the convenient SkyTrain network, providing you with even more dining, shopping and nightlife choices.

With its distinctive design and superb location, Aldynne on the Park offers a stylish and engaging alternative for Metrotown living.
