Some Things Never Change.

Especially when it comes to a good home. Like exquisite architecture and spacious interiors. Tasteful furnishings and appliances at the highest standard. A location that offers the perfect combination of peaceful and practical, where all lifestyle choices are just within reach.

This is York, a collection of 62 craftsman-styled townhomes, all nestled within one of the Lower Mainland's most promising communities – Langley.

Forgo the cramped spaces and nameless faces. Return to what it has always been about. Neighbourhoods, lush greenery, nearby delights and good friends. Timeless beauty and generous space. Embrace the tradition of good living.

Langley: Beautiful. Unstoppable. Affordable.

Langley is the ideal mix of small-town hospitality and urban convenience. Just a quick drive away brings you to schools, cultural amenities and community services. Being close to major shopping centres and notable restaurants means instant gratification to any retail or fine dining fix. Direct access to major road networks allows you to travel efficiently all over the Lower Mainland. And when you feel like getting away from it all, look no further than the nearby rolling countrysides, golf courses, plentiful parks and surrounding wilderness – its great recreational opportunities provide the perfect escape.

Good Living is in the Details.

Charming, cottage style exteriors are accented with shingled rooftops, rustic wooden vinyl sidings, and earthy river-rock style columns. Classic good looks are paired off with interior features that have been thoughtfully chosen for your comfort and convenience today, and their lasting beauty tomorrow. Meticulous attention to detail equates to exceptional investment value, with many modern extras that will make a big difference to everyday living.
