*It's hard to tell what you'll like the most about 728 Princess...
Bosa Development Corporation's new concrete condominium development in New Westminster's Uptown district.*

If you're a home-owner, you'll probably like the spacious rooms and all the storage space. Suites range from 1050 sq. feet for one bedroom suites up to 1278 square feet for two bedrooms. With six floor plans from which to choose you're bound to find something you like. An added plus is that each plan contains two bathrooms.

If you are an apartment dweller, you will appreciate the added privacy and security of concrete construction.

You may fall in love with the view. Situated atop Woodward Place at Princess Street on the crown of 8th Street, from any floor you can see the North Shore Mountains, Mount Baker or the constant flow of river traffic on the Fraser.

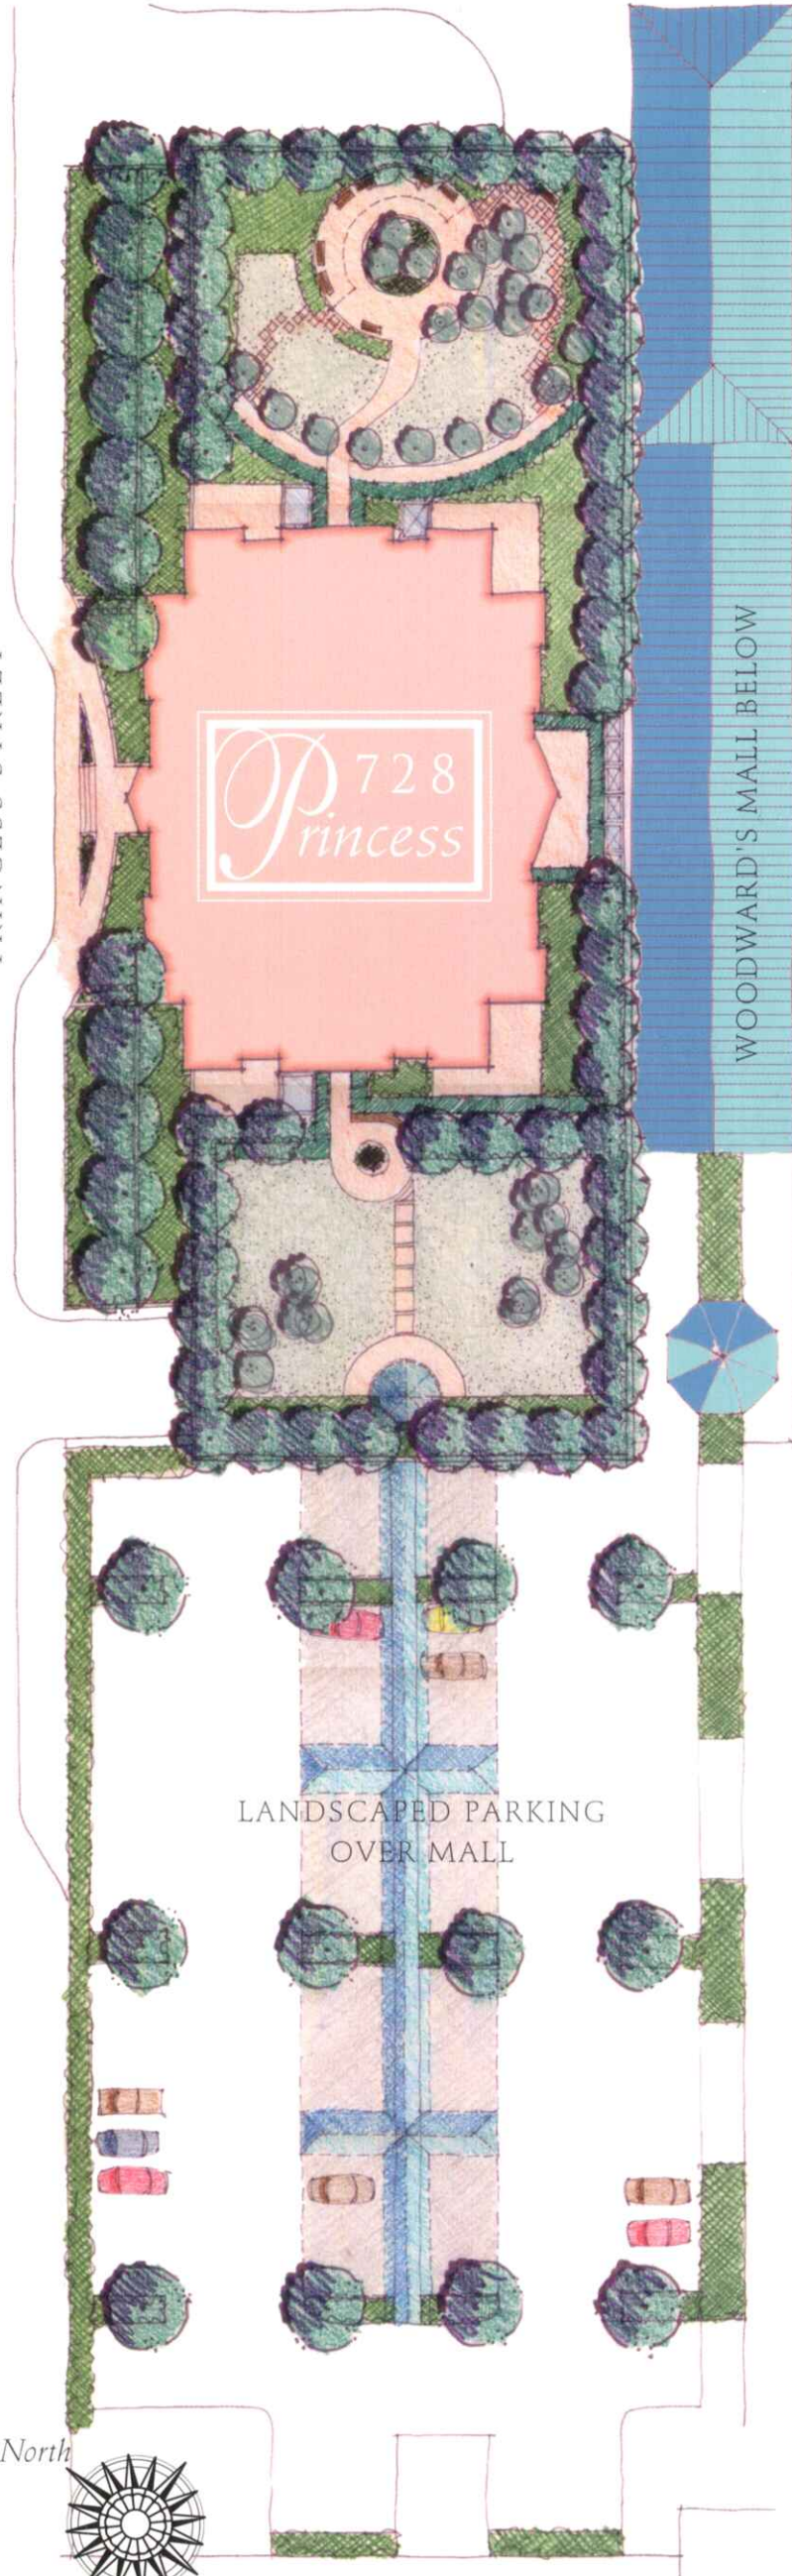

You will delight in the pleasant atmosphere of the landscaped gardens. There you can unwind in the sunshine amongst the fresh greenery or relax in the cool comfort of a shade tree. In the spring and summer, this might become your favourite spot.

Whatever the season, inside, at the social lounge, you can make new friends and spend many a pleasant hour enjoying social recreation or just good conversation.

Dear Sarah,

I've finally found a place that's such good value and so convenient that I've decided to move Uptown.

The rooms are big, really big. I have twice as much as space as my son David does in his Kits apartment and I've almost the same storage as my house.

Everything I need is near at hand and on the level. I don't need to tell you how I hate those hills. Because we're on top of Woodward Place, shopping is right downstairs. I just get off the elevator, walk a few steps, go out our private exit and I'm in the mall.

It's great. No driving. No raincoat. No rain. Rather nice, don't you think?

Of course, if I'm feeling energetic, I can skip across the street to Moody Park for lawn bowling, or catch the bus to the Quay, or Skytrain for downtown. On nice days, I might even hop in the car and zip over to Queen's Park for a stroll in the woods.

When I'm in a stay-at-home mood, I can watch the boats on the Fraser River from my balcony or sip hot chocolate and enjoy the warmth of my spiffy new gas fireplace. Maybe on some days, I'll do both.

I know you're going to say I'm bragging, but you'd say exactly the same thing if you lived here.

At first David was a little reluctant about me moving. He said that he didn't know what I was going to do without a lawn to cut or a roof to mend. I told him I was going to use my new free time to take up golf, learn a new language, and get my camera out of the closet and travel.

How about you? I've got everything I need, except the company of my best friend.

Sincerely... Louise

P.P.S.

There's one on the 10th floor with a view of the mountains that I know you'd love.

It's great. No driving. No raincoat. No rain...

The location is perfect. Shopping, recreation, library and medical services are all within a three minute walk from your door. Everything you need is close at hand.

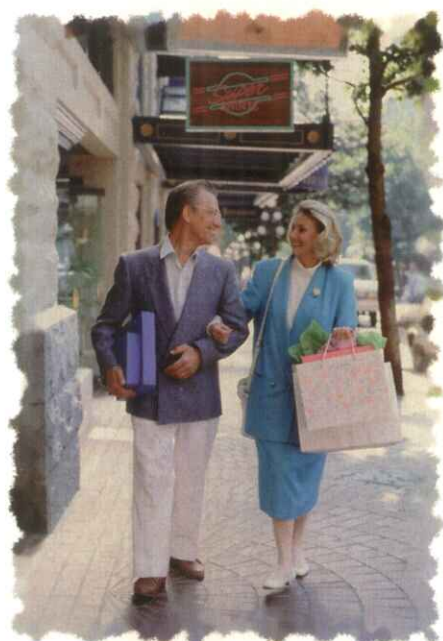

Because of your unique location, regular shopping can be done in minutes.

Ride to the mall with a push of a button. Step onto your elevator, and then step through your private security door into the mall. Shop when you want or be the first in line at opening. You can be sure of the freshest groceries at Safeway and the best selection of sales items when you live at 728 Princess.

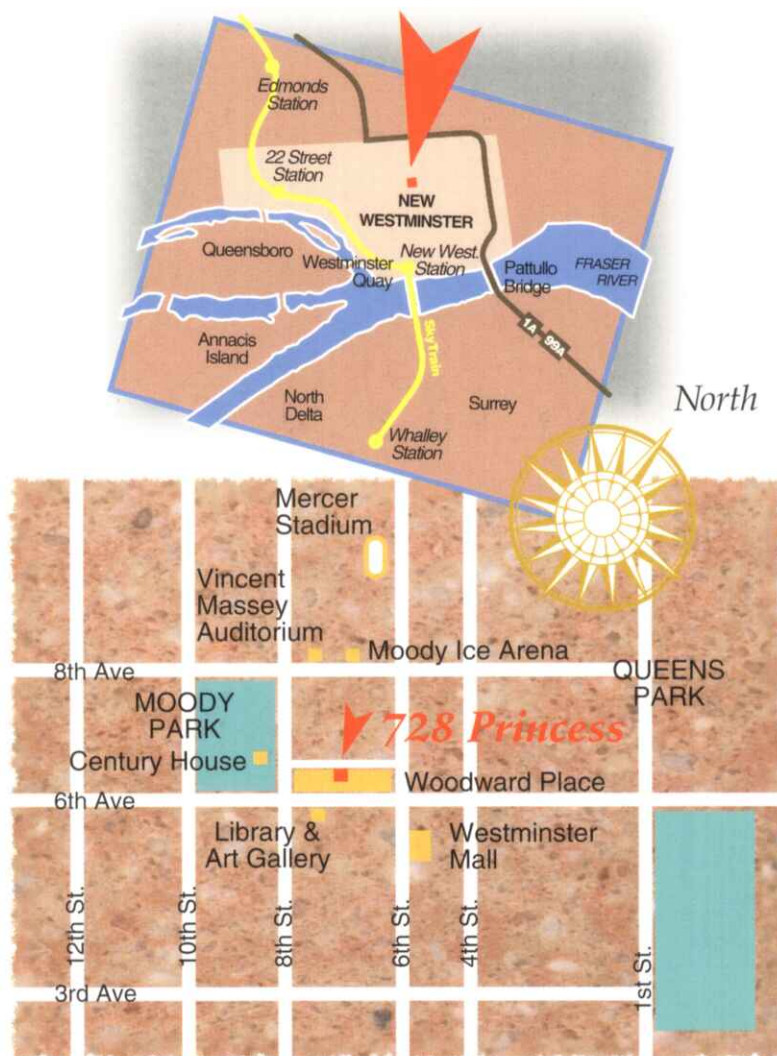

The pleasures of Moody Park are just across the street. There, you'll find a wonderful expanse of green park, lawn bowling and Century House, a seniors' centre with a busy schedule of activities and special events.

The main branch of the New Westminster Library is at your doorstep on Sixth Ave. Inside, you'll find local and national newspapers, cassette tapes, and large print books. One block beyond the library is a medical centre with a fully trained staff of doctors and nurses.

Because 728 Princess offers you such a convenient location, you'll have more leisure time to pursue your own activities and more time to just have fun.

*It's perfect...
