Park House is ideally positioned within these two desirable neighbourhoods, only minutes from amenities and entertainment at Marine Gateway and close to the upscale shops of Oakridge Centre. The cultural delights of Richmond and downtown Vancouver are only a few stations away on the Canada Line. There is a compelling attraction to South Cambie.

A FRESH TAKE ON CONTEMPORARY

On a quiet residential street, Park House stands out with distinction between Winona Park and Langara Golf Course on Vancouver's prestigious West Side.

The two six-storey, concrete buildings, designed by Franc Architecture, follow a contemporary form, with façades that reflect the colours of the trees as they change throughout the seasons. The modern shape is crafted to maximize light and views in each home, forming a connection with the surrounding environment.
