SOLO District includes over 80,000 square feet of new retail space, including Burnaby's first Whole Foods, famous for its unsurpassed selection of organic fresh and prepared foods and other essentials. The retailers on site are invigorating the neighbourhood, offering convenient accessibility to everyday necessities right outside your door.

Running through the centre of SOLO District is Skyline Drive, a new pedestrian-friendly street that offers close access to the community's retailers, including a Shopper's Drug Mart and BC Liquor Store, as well as Starbucks and Whole Foods, and a wide range of other shops and services. With extensive landscaping and social seating, the well-planned public space contributes to the energy and accessibility of daily life in SOLO District.

GRANDAMENITIES

Appia Development is known for its attention to every detail in the design and construction of communities. The lobby of SOLO District Phase 3 is no exception, providing an inviting and inspiring first impression for residents and visitors alike. It's a grand space bathed in light, an elegant setting to greet friends and family, and a suitable starting point for a world of adventures and activities. 24-hour concierge service provides easy assistance for everyday necessities.

SOLO District Phase 3's contemporary architecture is inviting and distinctive, anchored by the hotel-inspired arrival area. A bold modern canopy provides shelter from the elements, while extensive windows integrate the spacious lobby with the outdoors, making it easy to see friends or family arrive.

Every time you return to the building, you're greeted with a grand sense of place. Whether you're coming or going, you'll know you're home.

The interiors of SOLO District Phase 3 are carefully crafted by Cristina Oberti Interior Design, a Vancouver-based studio noted for refined residential design. The collection continues the exceptional standard established by the earlier phases of the community, and complements the elevated design of the architecture and building amenities.

The kitchens in Phase 3 are thoughtfully planned and beautifully detailed. Imported Italian Armony Cucine cabinetry, Bosch German appliances and polished quartz counters combine to create an atmosphere of contemporary elegance.

SOLO District Phase 3 is fulfilling its grand vision as an energetic new development amid the region's most sought-after urban amenities. Your home here provides a spectacular way to take in all the community has to offer.

From offices to shops and services, outdoor gathering spaces to next-level amenities, here you'll find everything you need, exactly where you need it.

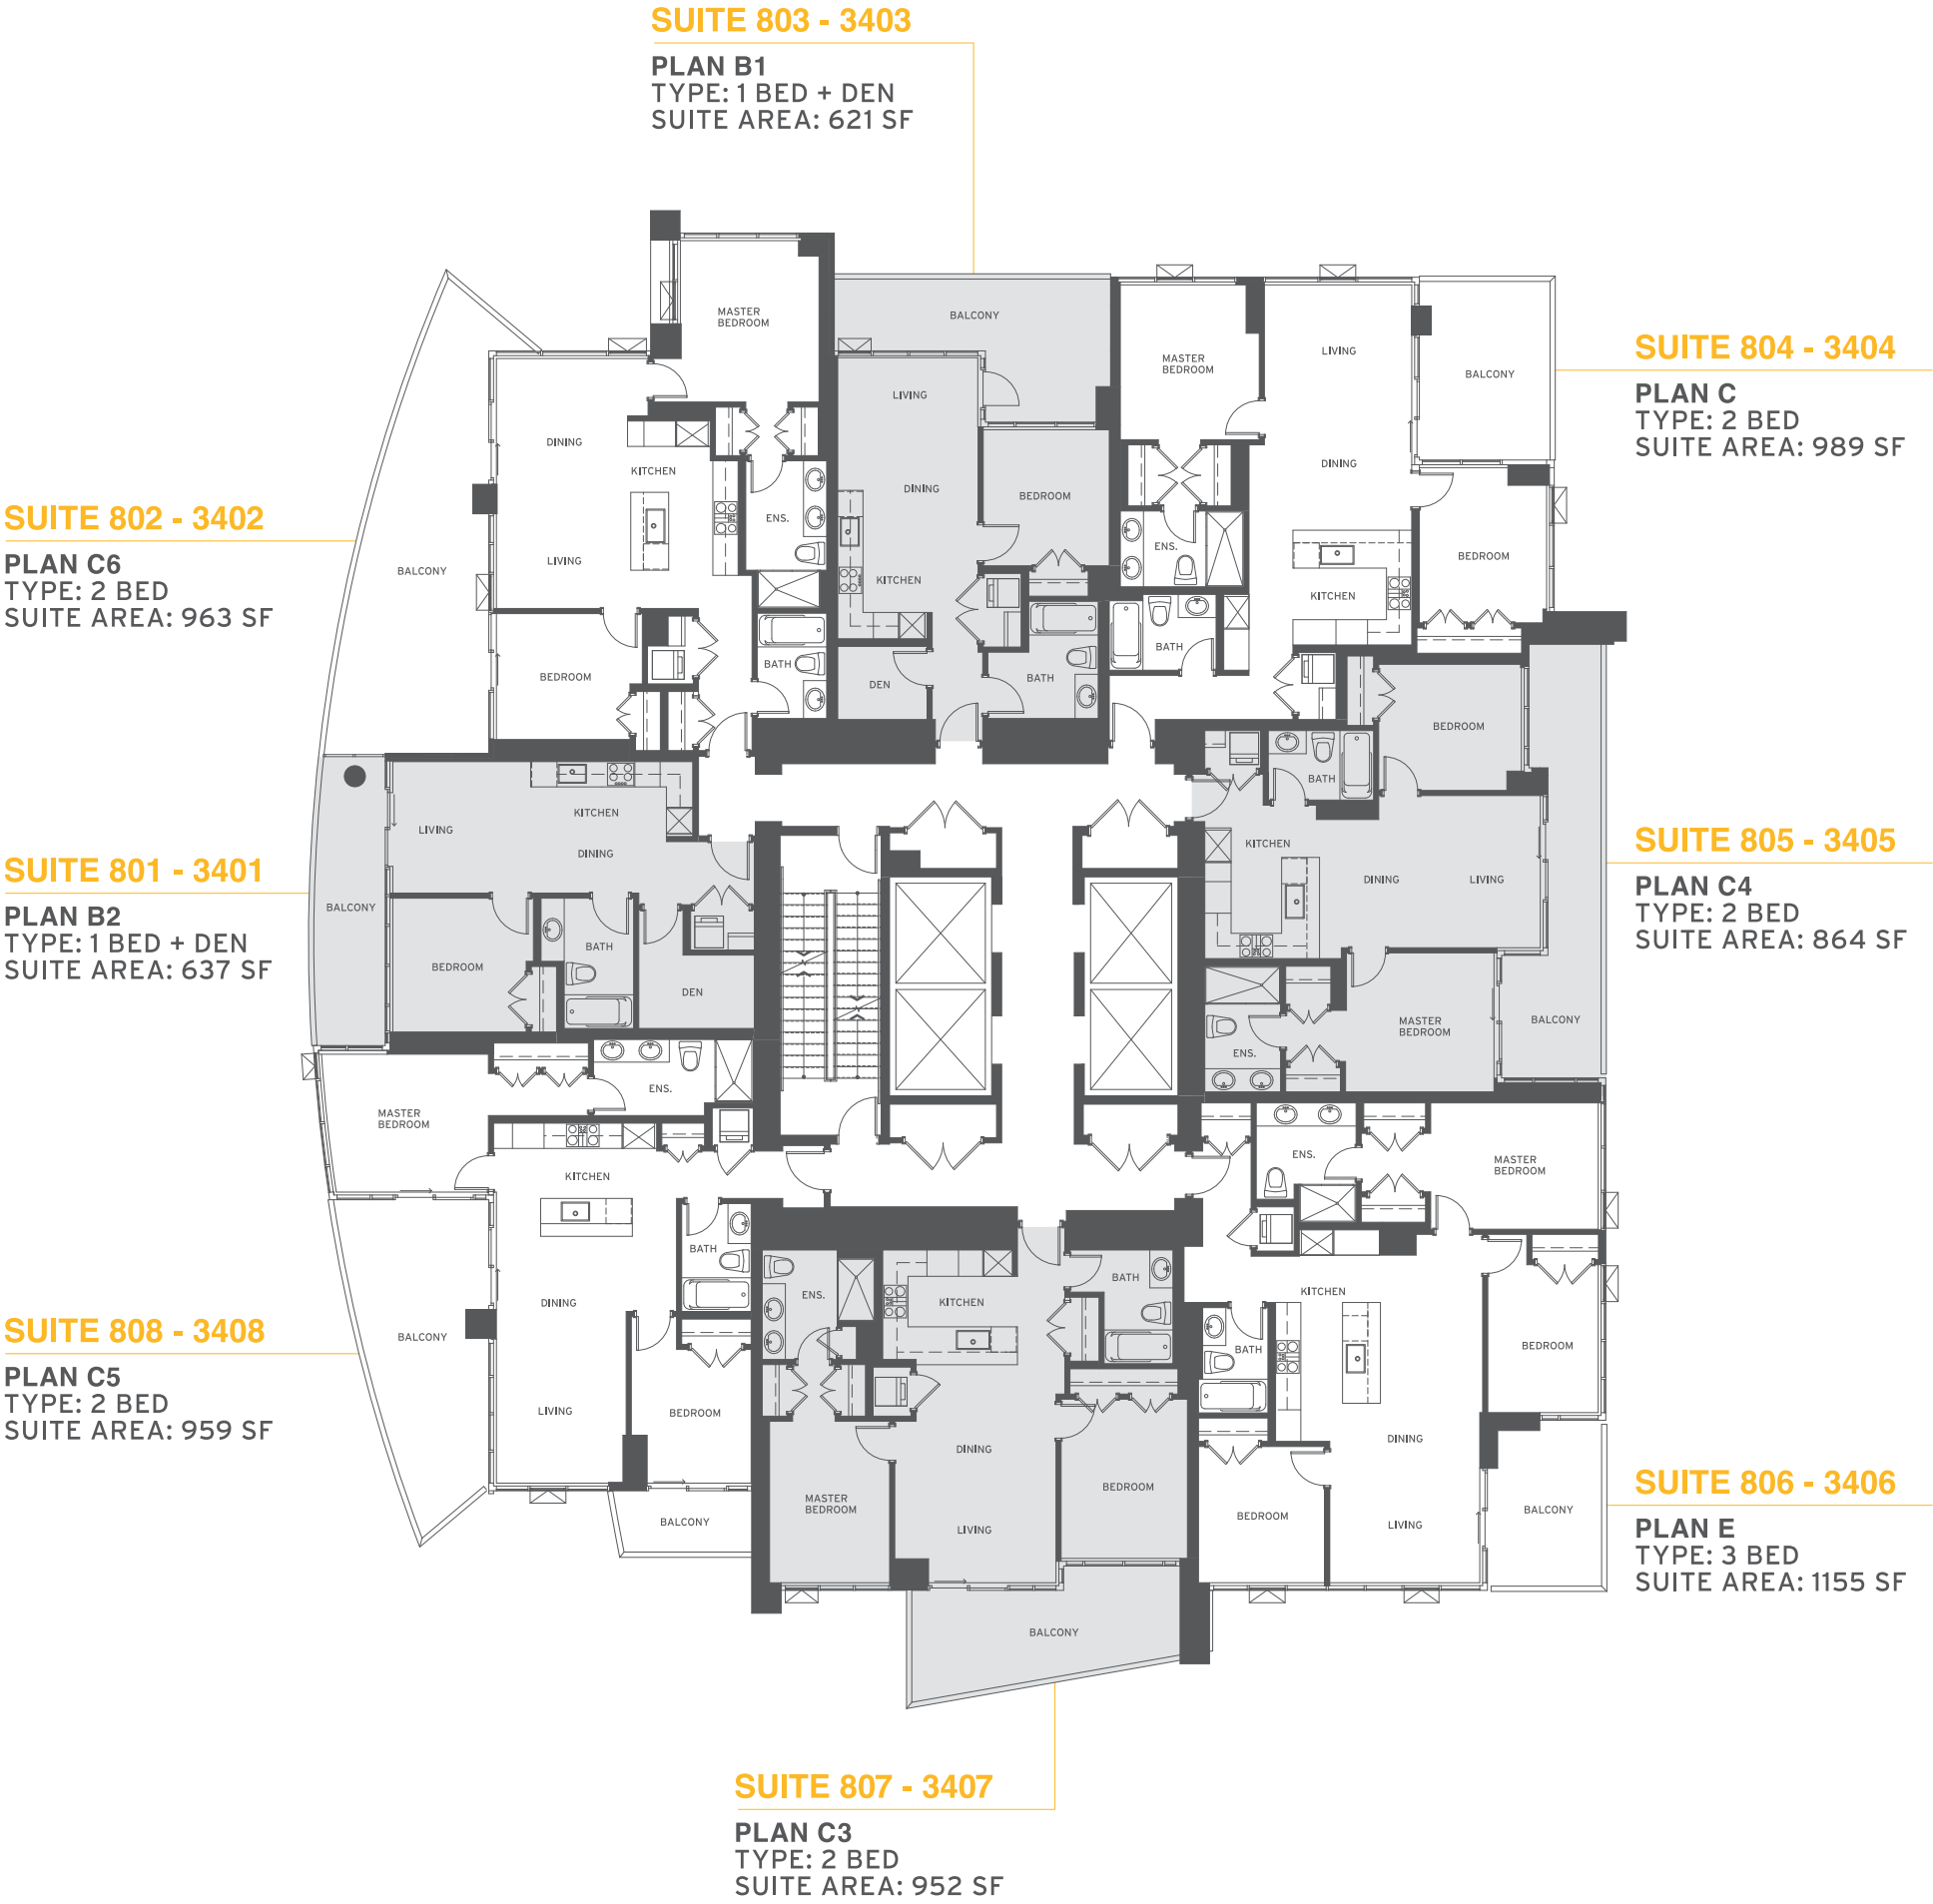

We are Burnaby builders with deep roots in the community.

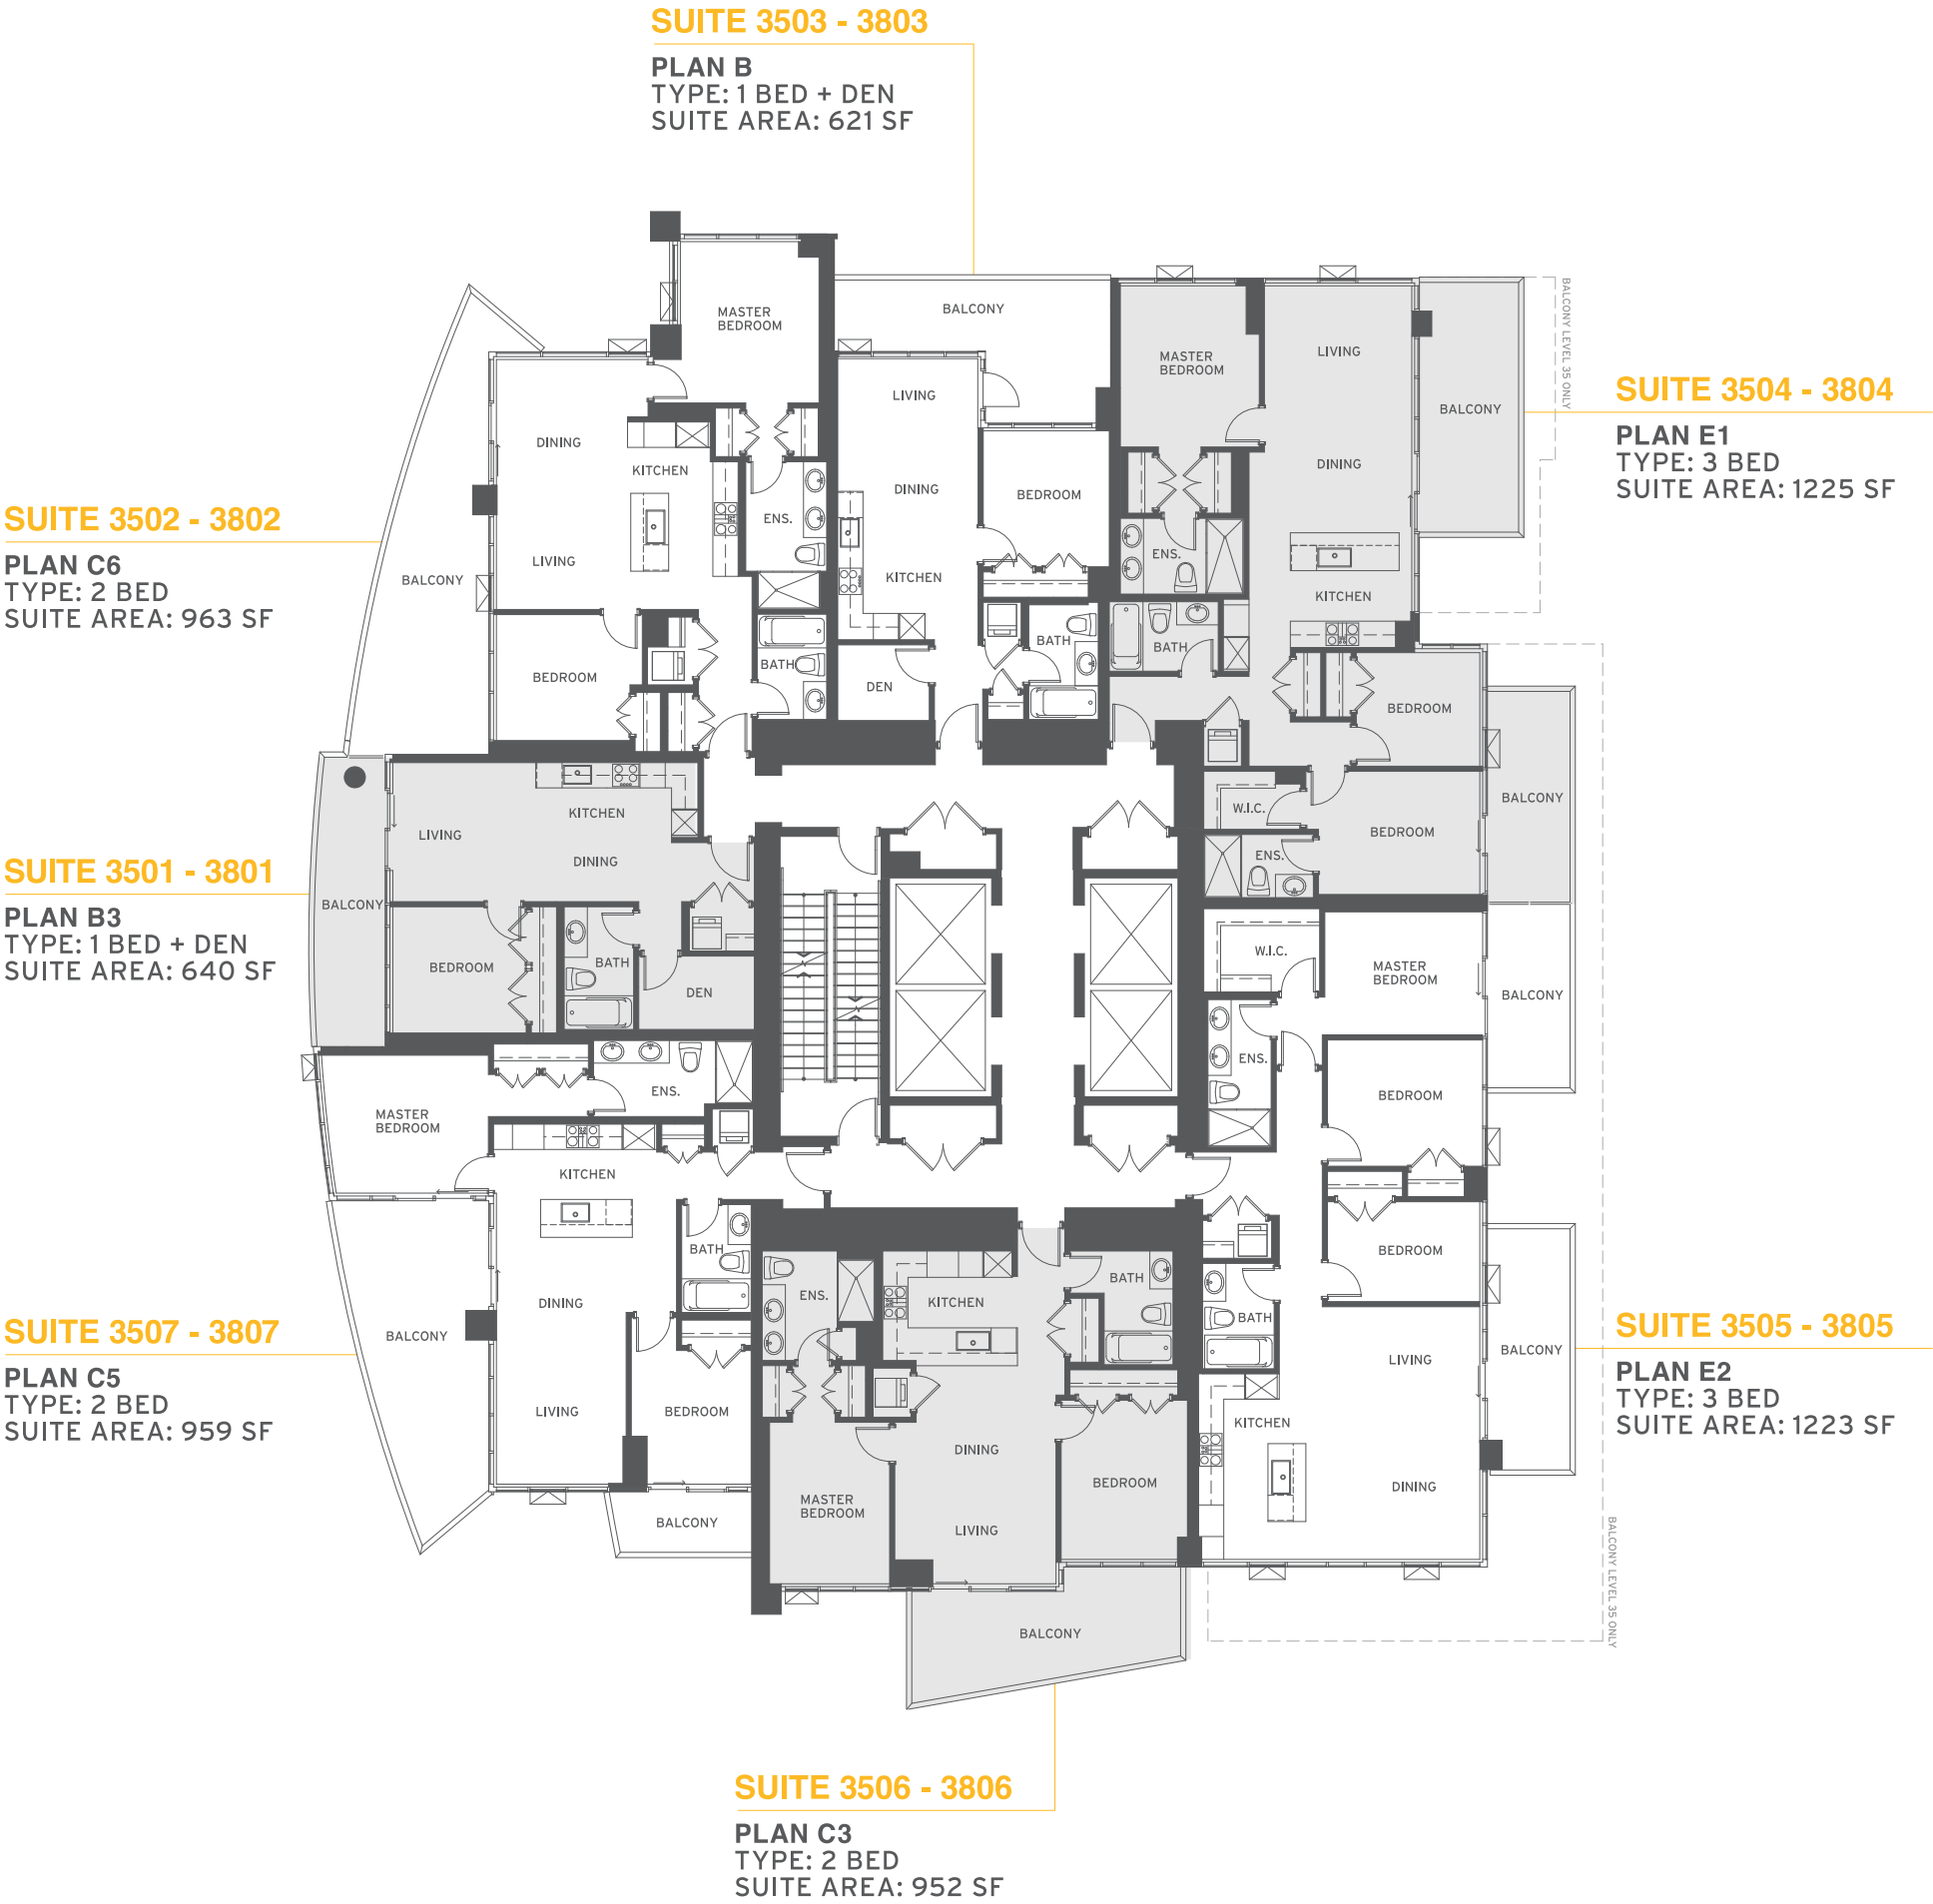

With over forty years in the industry and multiple projects in the area (including Madison Centre, Motif and Commerce at Citi, Renaissance Towers, Vantage) and throughout the Lower Mainland, Canada and North America, the Bosa legacy continues to build on a reputation of integrity, quality, honesty, and customer satisfaction. SOLO District is an iconic example of this vision, passion and expertise.

Jim Bosa's Appia shares the legacy of Bosa Development - both companies are based right here, having recognized the value and potential in North Burnaby, early.
