The shops and amenities of bustling Panorama Village are mere steps away, with plentiful shops and services to meet your family's everyday needs, including Fresh Street Market, Brown's Social House, Starbucks, Shopper's Drug Mart, and so much more. And if that's not enough, drive a quick 13 minutes to White Rock's Crescent Beach, 20 minutes to the US border, or hop on highways 99, 91 and 15 to connect to all of the Lower Mainland.

Take a class or workout at the Tong Louie Family YMCA just down the block. Picnic in one of the many small parks throughout the community. Enjoy plenty of nearby schools. And did we mention the Townsend residents' only clubhouse? It features a great room with bar for hosting parties, teen lounge, and a wonderful indoor kids' play room – perfect to take the kids on a rainy day and to make neighbours into friends.

With so much already going for it and even more being added, it's no wonder that the Panorama neighbourhood is attracting many wonderful families from throughout the Lower Mainland.
