READY FOR THE FUTURE

Rightfully serving as the heart of the home, every kitchen includes a spacious eating bar, polished quartz countertops, gorgeous two-tone cabinetry with LED lighting, and Blomberg® stainless steel appliances, including a gourmet gas range and oven. Whether for a breakfast for two or a party of ten, the intelligent layout and smart use of storage makes it a great place to come together.

ESCAPE TO THE ROOFTOP

With breathtaking views that stretch from the Fraser River to the North Shore mountains, the expansive rooftop patio is the picture-perfect place for a sunny morning coffee with neighbours, or a dinner party under the stars.

A MODERN RIVERSIDE RETREAT CENTURIES IN THE MAKING

From sleepy fishing hamlet to canery boomtown to Vancouver suburb, Steveston has undergone a transformative story for generations. Today, this picturesque neighbourhood blends traditional small-town charm with a progressive spirit creating a relaxed and luxurious destination rooted in history, bound to natural beauty and connected by a strong sense of community.

Designed to complement the heritage quality of the Village, this boutique collection of 2 bedroom to 3+flexroom + den homes put you at the heart of two seamlessly blended worlds. Worlds where historic canneries and shipyards coexist with award-winning restaurants and trendy shops. Worlds where you're never more than a stroll of the dog straight from a local dockside at Kistemaris Wharf – then grab a local craft beer at an upscale bistro. It's a place where endless summer vistas are best enjoyed from a rooftop patio, and everything you need is right at your doorstep.

YOUR NEW NEIGHBORHOOD

Steveston, founded in the 1880s, is a district of Richmond in Metro Vancouver. On the southernmost tip of Lulu Island, the village is a historic port and salmon canning centre at the mouth of the South Arm of the Fraser River. The early 1900s style architecture attracts both the fins and tourism industries.
