

NATURAL RETREATS

& URBAN CONVENIENCES

Life at Ridgewood brings the perfect balance of nature's serenity and urban convenience.

To the north, immediate access to Burke Mountain's extensive trail network brings endless natural beauty to your front door.

To the south, the future Burke Mountain Village will feature a community centre for all ages, vibrant public gathering spaces, and elevated amenities with curated shops and services. A short drive down the hill brings you to the well-established shopping districts of Port Coquitlam, along with top-rated schools.

